BLACK CULTURAL CENTER GROUNDBREAKING

The second weekend of October saw several historic firsts on the University of Oregon campus, including a ceremonial groundbreaking for a new $2.5 million Black Cultural Center.

The free public event took place at 1:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 12, at the site of the new building at the corner of 15th Avenue and Villard Street. It marked the end of the design phase of the project, which was a direct response to a demand made by the Black Student Task Force following a 2015 demonstration.

VETERANS DAY CEREMONY

Monday, November 12th

EMU BALLROOM
11 AM—12:30 PM

Refreshments will be served

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:
Jon Ruiz, Eugene City Manager
Introducing...Patrick Moore, Associate Director, FASS HR

Jon Marchetta welcomed Patrick Moore this week as the new Associate Director of FASS HR. Patrick comes to FASS from the Knight Library, where he served as the Human Resources Manager of UO Libraries. Patrick has an extensive background in recruitment, labor relations, employee development, organizational training, on-boarding and career management. He believes strongly in support throughout the employee lifecycle.

Patrick is UO alum, from the graduating class of 2007. He is a Eugene native with deep roots in Oregon, and an avid outdoor adventurer.

He will reside in office #1728 at 1715 Franklin. I’m sure you will see him running about. Please make sure to say hello!

Celebrating Excellence in Preservation, Reuse, and Community Revitalization

The DeMuro Award honors extraordinary historic rehabilitation projects and compatible infill development across Oregon – residential and commercial, urban and rural, private and public. The award is named in honor of Art DeMuro whose redevelopment of historic properties such as the White Stag Block set the standard for quality, creativity, persistence, and business acumen.

The DeMuro Award is the only state-wide award in Oregon recognizing the creativity, persistence, and craftsmanship required by outstanding restoration projects.

Congratulations to our 2018 award winners! The preservation community will celebrate your great achievement at the Restoration Celebration!

!!! GOLD DUCK REMINDER !!!

Please nominate your fellow CPFM employees who have gone above and beyond at work! The nomination form can be found at (H:\Public\Employee Recognition\Gold Duck—Nomination Form or use this link.

Make sure that their supervisor signs off on it, then turn it into me in person or scan it to me at annecs@uoregon.edu. The deadline for 4th Quarter nominations is Wednesday, November 21st.

Thank you!

MOVEMENT WITHIN CPFM

On October 18th, Jeff Butler, Debbi Davis, Kevin Farthing, Steve Pelkey, Jim Cody and Lawrence Elliott moved to Wilkinson House until renovations are completed in Bldg. 130. On November 2nd, The entire Campus Planning Dept. will move temporarily into the former Zone B (Bldg. 130, Room 110), while renovations take place upstairs in Bldg. 136. While I’m at it, for those of you who have been searching for Darin Dehle, he is temporarily in the KC Annex at 1399 Franklin (at Onyx) on the third floor.

Fantastic shot from PCAPPA in Spokane on October 5th. A dapper bunch!
George Weyrens Scholarship

We are happy to announce that this year, the George Weyrens Scholarship application is available through the UO Scholarship Dashboard! Here’s the link where you can find the application: https://uoregon.academicworks.com/opportunities/2107.

The application is live and the deadline is December 3, 2018. Hopefully, this process will help to generate a larger response from Campus Planning & Facilities Management employees.

George died in Eugene in 2001. He worked for the University from 1968 to 1987 as a custodian. He lived frugally, he had a radio, one fork, one knife, one spoon, one plate, one glass, a frying pad and a pot. He never had a driver’s license or a car. He walked everywhere or sometimes took the bus. He worked hard, but in the shadow of the night, not a lot of people knew him on campus. When George died in 2001, after paying his expenses, he had $22,000. His friend and lawyer decided he deserved permanent recognition. He added some of his own money and created a scholarship fund with the University of Oregon Foundation.

Thank you,
Linda Miller

HAPPY HALLOWEEN

The Charitable Fund Drive is now open for participation. I will be sending out an email November 1, with instructions on how to donate and all the materials to make an informed decision. Stay tuned!!!
Thank you for the support you've provided the students to get this off and running. They are very excited about this "real world" project and helping the university toward its sustainability goals. Two of the students on the team took my Intro to Green Infrastructure class this last spring, so they are anxious to apply what they've learned. The opportunity for the students to work with CPFM is just incredible. I’ll keep you updated as things progress.

Thanks to you and your team for BEATING our scheduling deadline for the work in 230U HEDCO. We had three different campus units (painting/custodial/NTS) and one subcontractor in the space over the course of 4 days. The space looks great and the occupants are very happy.

Kyle’s team from campus ops were great today. 219A is empty and ready for Office World in the morning. Also, painters came and the walls look great! Thank you for coordinating that!

Brandon and your team have once again shined brightly with their innovation, expertise, and can-do attitude. Brandon found a fix to our ailing LED can lights that are failing on a regular basis. He hounded the original manufacturer, who did not help or respond, so he found another fix. Also your team was very responsive and innovative finding solutions for lighting the artwork in the building, leading to a whole slew of very satisfied customers. Ernie is continuing to bird-dog our rail light system for a display, trying to find a solution when the manufacturer is again not helping. I hope they are up for a raise, they deserve it! Fantastic customer service!!

"On my way in this morning, I ran into Dan and talked with him about an upcoming reception in Chapman Hall involving the UO Foundation Board of Trustees. Dan does such a wonderful job, including sprucing it up whenever we have a major event."

I want to commend the actions of George Bruce on Tuesday, Oct. 23. UOPD notified us that LISB labs had flooded, and the water had reached 4 floors. We responded as time allowed. George Bruce was there when I arrived shortly after 6:00 a.m., He stayed well beyond the end of shift, working a Kai-Vac and a wet vacuum. His attitude and work ethic helped to save the day, and it is greatly appreciated.
