Campus Planning and Facilities Management

August, 2018

Dear Valued Customers,

This document serves as a general guide for determining the financial and organizational responsibility for maintenance, alterations, repairs, and other related services to University of Oregon academic research and general education buildings. It does not address auxiliaries, services centers, or some other units, that are managed as self-supporting units and are charged for all services.

Campus Planning and Facilities Management (CPFM) is responsible for the construction and maintenance of the structure and infrastructure of the main campus buildings and grounds. CPFM is comprised of the following units: Campus Planning, Utilities and Energy, Design and Construction, Facilities Services, and the Office of Sustainability. This department is charged with operating, maintaining, and preserving the value of UO's physical facilities for the benefit of the state and UO. This includes assuring that all construction activities are accomplished in accordance with State Statutes, Administrative Rules, Legislative Authorizations, University Policies, University Design Guidelines, University Construction Standards, building codes, seismic codes, electrical/mechanical codes, ADA Guidelines, Environmental Health & Safety Regulations, Department of Labor Relations, Insurance Requirements, Collective Bargaining Agreements, and are performed in an efficient and cost effective manner.

This document provides a broad overview of funding responsibilities for the basic services provided and administered by CPFM. If you have questions about services not listed, please contact our Work Control Center at workcontrolcenter@uoregon.edu, or call 541-346-2319. CPFM conforms to the 'Campus Construction Standards', which can be accessed at: <http://cpfm.uoregon.edu/campus-design-standards-0>

As an institutional responsibility, CPFM is the sole provider of alteration, maintenance, and repair of facilities for E&G funded buildings, at the University of Oregon. This responsibility is in place to minimize the incidence of statutory and regulatory violations, maintain standards of quality and appearance, provide coordination of work, maintain a safe work environment, and preserve the integrity of structures and systems.

Funding Responsibilities

This document identifies the financial responsibility for the management, maintenance, repair, and renovation services listed. CPFM receives an annual appropriation of central funds for basic maintenance and operations of campus academic facilities. Funding responsibilities outlined in this document do not replace existing Memoranda of Understanding (MOU) between CPFM and individual departments on specified facilities or processes.

“CPFM Responsibility” signifies funding by the CPFM general fund annual budget. “Department Responsibility” signifies funding by the department being serviced, which is billed to the department’s index.

Service Responsibilities

You can request services by logging into <https://cgis.uoregon.edu/callog>. Skilled trades’ personnel in the Facilities Services unit will manage/perform the work. A work order will be generated by the work control center. Designation as a “department funding responsibility” does not imply that work may be performed or managed by departments.

We look forward to the opportunity of collaborating with you and keeping the University of Oregon functioning smoothly.

Regards,

Michael A. Harwood, FAIA
